WOODSTOCK PERCUSSION NAMES BETSY HARRINGTON SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT-SALES

SHOKAN, NY (July 6, 2005) – Betsy Harrington has been appointed Senior Vice President of Sales for New York-based Woodstock Percussion, Inc., worldwide leader in the manufacture of precision-tuned wind chimes and premium musical gifts.

Harrington previously served as the company's Vice President of Sales. In her new role, Harrington will be responsible for managing and developing key retail accounts. Reporting to Woodstock CEO and Co-Founder Garry Kvistad, Harrington will work closely with Woodstock sales and marketing team leaders, Stacey Bowers, Executive Vice President of Business Development and Steve Davis, National Sales Manager, to continue building and strengthening the company's position in the marketplace.

"Betsy's extensive industry experience and proven track record with our company will be invaluable as she works to nurture existing retail relationships," says Kvistad. "And, her strong understanding of the nuances of our line, and the benefits and opportunities it offers to a wide variety of retail customers, promises to help grow our key account business."

Prior to joining Woodstock Percussion in 1994, Harrington served as Senior Sales Operations Manager with Digital Equipment Corporation, Albany New York.

Woodstock Percussion, a worldwide leader in the design and manufacture of tuned wind chimes and musical giftware was founded by music pioneers Garry and Diane Kvistad in 1979. Today, Woodstock markets more than 100 different products in its Signature™, Encore® and new Environments Collections. Its home and garden offerings include tuned chimes, bells, gongs, musical fountains and numerous other items. The most recent additions to the Environments Collection are hand-carved bamboo root and teak ducks from Indonesia (DCUKs). The company's Woodstock Music Collection™ is a unique assortment of instruments from around the world that can be played and enjoyed without extensive training or practice.
